

Language Situations in the Nordic Countries

Invited Speakers

- ▶ Professor Leena Huss, Uppsala University
- ▶ Professor Niels Davidsen-Nielsen, Former Chair of Danish Language Council
- ▶ Professor Pirkko Nuolijärvi, Research Institute for the Languages of Finland
- ▶ Rector Steinar Pedersen, Sami University College, Kautokeino, Norway
- ▶ Professor Krister Ståhlberg, Åbo Akademi, Finland
- ▶ Professor François Grin, University of Geneva, DYLAN deputy coordinator

At the occasion of the 8th Consortium Meeting of the DYLAN Project, we would like to invite you to the open session “Language Situations in the Nordic Countries”, which will take place in the Swedish School of Social Sciences Festsal, Tuesday 17 May 2011 at 15h30.

The Open Session will cover national languages that in a European perspective are relatively small (Danish, Finnish), national languages that are spoken by a de facto minority (Swedish in Finland), kin-state minority languages (Finnish in Sweden) and indigenous languages (Sami in Norway).

© Helsingin kaupungin matkailu- ja kongressitoimisto

Tuesday 17 May

15.30-17.00

Swedish School of Social Sciences,
Festsal

www.dylan-project.org

dylan
Kielen muutosvoimat
ja moninaisuuden hallinta

- ▶ Before the panel discussion (from 15.00 hours), there will be a welcome drink offered by the Rector of the Swedish School of Social Science at the University of Helsinki, Mr Henrik Hägglund.
- ▶ The panel discussion will be chaired by Professor Tom Moring, University of Helsinki.
- ▶ It will be opened by the Rector of the University of Helsinki, Professor Thomas Wilhelmsson.